

ADMISSION POLICY FOR STUDENTS HOLDING PASSPORTS FROM THE FOLLOWING COUNTRIES:
THE PEOPLES REPUBLIC OF CHINA, REPUBLIC OF KOREA, TAIWAN, HONG KONG AND OTHERS HOLDING CHINESE PASSPORTS

All international student applicants described above who require an F-1 visa to attend school in the United States will need to contact KEM Educational Group (KEM). This includes students who currently attend a school in the U.S. on an F-1 visa. KEM will assist with all inquiries, applications and, should admission be awarded, the enrollment process. Should a student be offered admission and the offer of admission be accepted, KEM will also provide a comprehensive set of student support services such as legal guardianship, assistance with I-20 related matters, health insurance, housing and various activities.

St. John Vianney High School is unable to work with international students described above independent of our partner, KEM.

Please direct all of your inquiries and questions to Yonghong Ying-McElroy.
